? At a Nuclear Crossroads: Pahalgam, Escalation, and Global Consequences

A central theme of the conference was the escalating danger in South Asia following the 9th May 2025 conventional clash between India and Pakistan, and the tragic Pahalgam massacre on 22nd April 2025, which claimed 26 innocent lives. Participants warned that any escalation between two nuclear-armed states poses a threat to global peace.

Speakers called on the United Nations and the international community to immediately investigate the Pahalgam attack to establish accountability and prevent misinformation that could lead to broader conflict.

???? Rise of Hindutva Extremism and Global Ideological Threats

The conference highlighted that under Prime Minister Narendra Modi, India has become a beacon of Hindutva extremism, led by the BJP and RSS, which promote the ideology of an “Akhand Bharat” — a greater India dream that undermines pluralism across South Asia.

This ideology has spread through its Western wing, the Hindu Swayamsevak Sangh (HSS), active in:

The UK, USA, Canada, Australia, and Europe

As revealed in Channel 4 investigations, these networks:

Indoctrinate youth under the guise of yoga

Engage in political entryism

Promote hatred through media and Bollywood India was further accused of state-sponsored terrorism, including assassination plots against Sikh and Kashmiri activists in Western countries.

Uranium Smuggling and "Water Terrorism"

With over 30 uranium smuggling incidents reported in the last two decades from India, speakers warned of global nuclear security risks. India's threats to stop water flows to Pakistan — violating rights over rivers originating in Illegally Occupied Jammu & Kashmir (IOJK) — were described as "water terrorism."

India's internal fragmentation was also noted, with 19+ separatist movements, including in: Kashmir Punjab, Manipur & Nagaland South India

Crimes Against Women and Legal Impunity

Participants condemned India's use of rape as a weapon of war in Kashmir. The AFSPA law, caste-based impunity, and political shielding by BJP-RSS networks were blamed for widespread abuse. A recent US travel advisory warning women against solo travel to India further confirmed these concerns.

Even Congress leader Rahul Gandhi has called Delhi "the rape capital of the world." If Indian women are unsafe in their capital, speakers asked, "what of Kashmiri women under occupation?"

???? Tributes to Martyrs and Prisoners of Conscience

The conference paid tribute to imprisoned Kashmiri leaders and human rights defenders, including:

Yasin Malik, Dr Qasim Fakto, Shabir Shah, Khurram Parvez, Asif Sultan,

Sajad Gul, Aasiya Andrabi, Altaf Shah, Musarat Alam Bhat

And those martyred:

Syed Ali Shah Geelani, Ashraf Sehrai

Non-Kashmiri voices remembered:

Arundhati Roy, Medha Patkar, Kumar Vishwas, Saifuddin Soz

???? Legal Violations and the Simla Agreement's Nullity

The speakers emphasized that India has violated:

Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)

Geneva Conventions (1949) UNSC Resolutions 47, 51 & 91, The Simla Agreement of 1972, signed under wartime duress and without Kashmiri consent, was declared legally void, with 18 UNSCRs reaffirming Kashmiris' Right to Self-Determination.

Upcoming House of Lords Debate & International Call to Action

The UK House of Lords will debate the Kashmir issue on 17th July 2025, and JKSDMI urged parliamentarians to address:

Human rights violations, Nuclear tensions

Gender-based violence Hindutva extremism

Six Humble Appeals to the Global Community:

Launch an independent international investigation into the Pahalgam incident

Reinforce calls for a UN-supervised plebiscite in Kashmir

Ban Hindutva ideology globally and sanction RSS & HSS networks

Hold India accountable for uranium trafficking

Support Kashmiri political prisoners and exiled activists

Prevent India's "water terrorism" through UNSC and World Bank mechanisms

???? A Message to the UK and the World

As a UN Security Council permanent member, a Commonwealth founder, and a state with universal jurisdiction, the United Kingdom must act:

Sanction India for its war crimes in Kashmir

Refer Indian officials to the International Criminal Court (ICC) for:

Rape as a weapon of war, Extrajudicial killings Forced disappearances Suppression of journalists, Violation of UN resolutions

Nuclear negligence

Justice delayed is not just justice denied – it is a warning.

The time to stand with Kashmir is now – not later.”

Said : Raja Najabat Hussain Chairman JKSDMI and Councillor Yasmine Dar Chairperson International Lobby on Kashmir.
